PERSONALITY PROFILE ASSESSMENT

Dear Client:

Please take a minute to find a quiet, relaxed place where you can spend about fifteen minutes completing the Personality Profile Assessment. Answer YES, NO, or SOMETIMES to each question.

There are no “right” or “wrong” answers. You cannot pass or fail. This is not a test. This is a self-assessment. Simply answer each statement according to how you see your child. It is not what you hope they become some day in the future. Neither is it about how you think others might see them. It is simply about how you see your child. Your first inclinations are probably your best response and the one you should select.

Thank you,

Tiffany Denyer, President
